

Idec Technical Services Ltd

Power Systems

Power Systems The efficient management of power systems is vital to the success of any company operating in today's competitive environment. Ensuring the suitability of the initial design it's installation, commissioning and subsequent maintenance requires technical knowledge and an experienced yet innovative approach.

Idec has developed it's skills in Power Systems Engineering to offer a complete service, ensuring maximum customer support and efficiency with minimum "outage time" and cost penalties.

Idec's services are tailored to maximise both client and in-house capabilities.

The following services are provided:

- HV/MV/LV Switchgear Systems
- Protection System Design
- HV Protection Panel Design
- System Design Studies
- Specification Audits
- Procurement
- Commissioning
- Inspection and Testing
- Transformer Maintenance / Inspection / Testing
- Maintenance (Annual Program Capability)
- Battery System Maintenance
- Competent Person and Authorised Person Training
- Portable Appliance Testing
- Electrical Instrumentation and Metering

HV Protection Panels Norton Sub-station.

